

Job Description

Post:	Sessional Youth Worker Level 2
Hours:	Various hours dependent on experience and availability
Responsible To:	Senior Youth Worker / Manager
Salary:	£14 per hour

Purpose

To develop purposeful links with young people and work with them to develop their ideas and create opportunities for themselves and the local community. All work will be negotiated in partnership with young people where their demands and aspirations are accepted and respected. Openness and flexibility will be key aspects in ensuring that young people have the relevant information to make positive choices in their lives.

Key Tasks

To make contact with young people in Wester Hailes and surrounding areas and identify their needs and aspirations.

To participate in the delivery of a range of Youth Agency services which meet the identified needs and aspirations of young people. Sessional Youth Workers are expected to work on sites both outdoors and centre based.

To plan, prepare and deliver youth work programmes, including contributing to evaluations and reviews.

To provide ongoing support and information to young people on a variety of issues.

To encourage and support the involvement of young people in all aspects of the Agency and the local community.

To adhere to current policy and practice in all aspects of the Agency's work.

To contribute to the effective administration of Youth Agency services.

To take part in training deemed necessary by the current requirements of the Agency.

To undertake any other duties which may be required.

Person Specification

The following criteria, highlights the experience, skills and knowledge which is required for the post of Sessional Youth Worker Level 2.

Essential

- Minimum two years' experience of working with young people in one or more of the following settings: drop in provision, detached, groupwork, individual support, schools work.
- Knowledge and understanding of the issues affecting young people's lives.
- Understanding of safeguarding, child protection and confidentiality.
- Ability to think on your feet, act quickly and respond to situations.
- Demonstrate common sense and initiative.
- Observant and thorough with excellent attention to detail.
- The post holder should be non-judgemental, competent, conscientious and self-aware.
- Ability to develop and sustain relationships with a wide range of people.
- Excellent communication, organisation and admin skills.
- The post holder should be able and willing to engage in constructive discussion to promote good practice and continued development.
- Experience of working as part of a team.
- A good level of educational attainment.
- Available to work unsocial hours, and to working outdoors in a variety of weather conditions.

Desirable

- An understanding and commitment to diversity and equality.
- An ability to manage resources and develop programmes.
- Experience of working in a disadvantaged area.
- IT skills including Microsoft office packages.

Wester Hailes Youth Agency
Data Protection Privacy Notice (Recruitment)

This notice explains what personal data (information) we will hold about you, how we collect it, and how we will use and may share information about you during the application process. We are required to notify you of this information, under data protection legislation. Please ensure that you read this notice (sometimes referred to as a 'privacy notice') and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

Who collects the information

Wester Hailes Youth Agency (the 'Organisation') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you. Where the Organisation is also a 'data processor', we will process information received from third parties about you.

Data protection principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our Data Protection Policy.

About the information we collect and hold

The table set out on the following pages summarises the information we collect and hold up to and including the shortlisting stage of the recruitment process, how and why we do so, how we use it and with whom it may be shared.

The table below also summarises the additional information we collect before making a final decision to recruit, i.e. before making an offer of employment unconditional, how and why we do so, how we use it and with whom it may be shared.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

Where information may be held

Information may be held at our offices and third-party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents. Information may be transferred internationally including to countries that do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in the UK. We have security measure in place to seek to ensure that there is appropriate security for information we hold.

How long we keep your information

We keep the personal information that we obtain about you during the recruitment process for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. How long we keep your information will depend on whether your application is successful and you become employed by us, the nature of the information concerned and the purposes for which it is processed.

We will keep recruitment information (including interview notes) for no longer than is reasonable, taking into account the limitation periods for potential claims such as race or sex discrimination (as extended to take account of early conciliation), after which they will be destroyed. If there is a clear business reason for keeping recruitment records for longer than the recruitment period, we may do so but will first consider whether the records can be pseudonymised, and the longer period for which they will be kept.

If your application is successful, we will keep only the recruitment information that is necessary in relation to your employment.

Further details on our approach to information retention and destruction are available in our Retention Policy.

Your rights to correct and access your information and to ask for it to be erased

Please contact the signatory to the attached letter if, (in accordance with applicable law) you would like to correct or request access to information that we hold relating to you or if you have any questions about this notice. You also have the right to ask the organisation for some but not all of the information we hold and process to be erased (the 'right to be forgotten') in certain circumstances the organisation will provide you with further information about the right to be forgotten, if you ask for it.

Keeping your personal information secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

How to complain

We hope that the organisation can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. If not, contact the Information Commissioner at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/> or telephone: 0303 123 1113 for further information about your rights and how to make a formal complaint.

Schedule relating to the information we collect and hold
Part A - Up to and including the shortlisting stage

The information we collect	How we collect the information	Why we collect the information	How we use and may share the information
Your name and contact details (i.e. address, home and mobile phone numbers, email address)	From you	Legitimate interest: to carry out a fair recruitment process Legitimate interest: to progress your application, arrange interviews and inform you of the outcome at all stages	To enable HR personnel and/or the relevant manager to contact you to progress your application, arrange interviews and inform you of the outcome To inform the relevant manager or department of your application
Details of your qualifications, experience, employment history (including job titles, salary and working hours) and interests	From you, in the completed application form and interview notes (if relevant)	Legitimate interest: to carry out a fair recruitment process Legitimate interest: to make an informed decision to shortlist for interview and (if relevant) to recruit	To make an informed recruitment decision The person making the shortlisting decision will receive pseudonymised or anonymised details only; if you are invited for interview, the interviewer will receive non-anonymised details
Your racial or ethnic origin, sex and sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs	From you, in a completed anonymised equal opportunity monitoring form	To comply with our legal obligations and for reasons of equality of opportunity and treatment	To comply with our equal opportunities monitoring obligations and to follow our equality and other policies For further information, see  below
Information regarding your criminal record	From you, in your completed application form	To comply with our legal obligations For reasons of substantial public interest preventing or detecting unlawful acts and protecting the public against dishonesty	To make an informed recruitment decision To carry out statutory checks Information shared with Disclosure Scotland and other regulatory authorities as required For further information, see  below
Details of your referees	From your completed application form	Legitimate interest: to carry out a fair recruitment process	To carry out a fair recruitment process To comply with legal/regulatory obligations Information shared with relevant managers, HR personnel and the referee

Part B

Before making a final decision to recruit

The information we collect	How we collect the information	Why we collect the information	How we use and may share the information
Information about your previous academic and/or employment history, including details of any conduct, grievance or performance issues, appraisals, time and attendance, from references obtained about you from previous employers and/or education providers *	From your referees (details of whom you will have provided)	Legitimate interest: to make an informed decision to recruit To comply with our legal obligations Legitimate interests: to maintain employment records and to comply with legal, regulatory and corporate governance obligations and good employment practice	To obtain the relevant reference about you To comply with legal/regulatory obligations Information shared with relevant managers and HR personnel
Information regarding your academic and professional qualifications *	From you, from your education provider and/or the relevant professional body	Legitimate interest: to verify the qualifications information provided by you	To make an informed recruitment decision
Information regarding your criminal record, in criminal records certificates (CRCs) and enhanced criminal records certificates (ECRCs)*	From you and from Disclosure Scotland	To perform the employment contract To comply with our legal obligations Legitimate interest: to verify the criminal records information provided by you For reasons of substantial public interest preventing or detecting unlawful acts, suspicion of terrorist financing or money laundering in the regulated sector and protecting the public against dishonesty	To make an informed recruitment decision To carry out statutory checks Information shared with Disclosure Scotland and other regulatory authorities as required For further information see  below
Your nationality and immigration status and information from related documents, such as your passport or other identification and immigration information *	From you and, where necessary, the Home Office	To enter into/perform the employment contract To comply with our legal obligations Legitimate interest: to maintain employment records	To carry out right to work checks Information may be shared with the Home Office
A copy of your driving licence *	From you	To enter into/perform the employment contract To comply with our legal obligations To comply with the terms of our insurance	To make an informed recruitment decision To ensure that you have a clean driving licence Information may be shared with our insurer

You are required (by law or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide the categories of information marked * above to us to enable us to verify your right to work and suitability for the position.

 Further details on how we handle sensitive personal information and information relating to any unspent criminal convictions and offenses are set out in our Data Protection Policy.